Explore beyond the galleries.

Verde que te quiero verde (Green How I Desire You Green) by Carmen Herrera

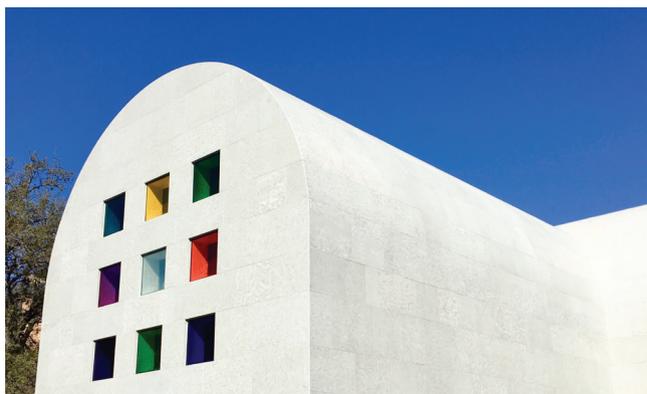

Plexus No. 44 by Gabriel Dawe

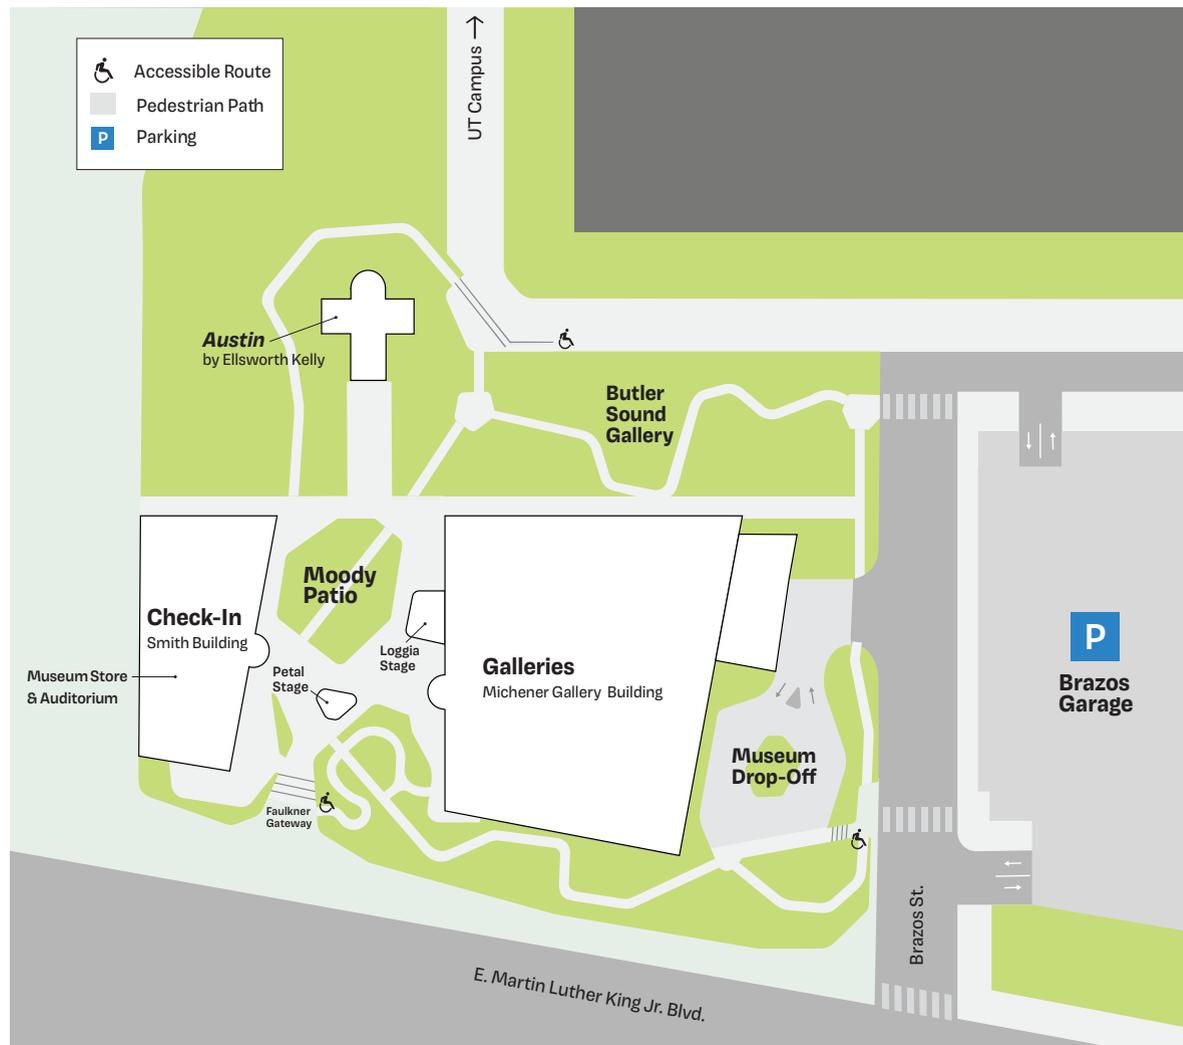

HI by Kay Rosen

Butler Sound Gallery
Step into our outdoor gallery dedicated to sound art (one of the first in the world!). The inaugural artwork, Landscape Soundings by Bill Fontana, is a sonic portrait of Austin and Texas Hill Country. Hear bats, birds, natural springs, and more during museum hours.

Austin by Ellsworth Kelly
The monumental limestone structure is both a work of art and a building. Explore colorful light streaming in from 33 stained-glass windows, a freestanding redwood totem, and 14 marble panels. Scan this code to access bilingual audio guides and transcriptions.

Turn your ticket into a membership.

Join at Check-In and apply your paid admission to the cost.

Help us protect the art.

- Have fun and explore, but please don't touch the art.
- Store oversize bags, backpacks, and items in our free lockers.
- No food and drinks, including water, are permitted in galleries and Austin by Ellsworth Kelly.
- Write or sketch with pencils only. No pens or markers, please.
- Supervise children under age 11. Visit the Meredith Lounge (Michener Gallery Building, second floor) for family-friendly activities.
- Take photos, but please turn off the flash. Don't forget to tag us @blantonmuseum (we might make you Instagram famous).

Visitor Map & Guide

Welcome to Austin's art museum.

There's always something new to see here, with three buildings and a whole lot of art everywhere you look.

- Check in or purchase admission, learn about membership, and visit the Museum Store in the Smith Building. Don't miss the artwork by Gabriel Dawe in the lobby.
- Explore the collection on the second floor of the Michener Gallery Building. Major exhibitions are on the first floor; exhibitions dedicated to video, contemporary art, and prints & drawings are on the second floor.
- Experience more immersive artworks from our collection throughout the museum grounds, including Austin by Ellsworth Kelly (pictured above).

We're here to help. If you have questions or need assistance, don't hesitate to ask at Check-In or in the galleries (look for our Gallery Assistants).
